COVID-19 Update and Discussion:

Michael Gilbert asked Eleanor Daugherty to give an update on COVID-19. She reported that UConn's success comes from a two-part strategy by research across the University and our partnership with students. Other schools are struggling. Students have had to make many behavioral choices and changes week after week. Our students want to be here and care about each other. Our testing strategy is rigorous and has a very quick turnaround. We have had to reduce occupancy in our residence halls, with about 4,700 students on campus. The focus of our COVID-19 work group is now the Spring Semester. Our target is 5,500 residential students for the spring with more isolation and quarantine spaces available.

Student Life Committee

We need to really give our students credit for the choices they are making and wearing their masks to help stay safe. Contact tracing requires complete compliance and our students are staying compliant. Trustee Cantor thanked the staff for the work they continue to do to keep our students safe. The students are incredible we have an exceptional medical team.

Mental Health Initiative Updates and Discussion:

Eleanor Daugherty is Co-chairing the President's Task Force on Student Mental Health and Wellbeing with Dean Nina Heller. Their recommendations should be released in the next few weeks before students leave for break and will be shared with this group at the next meeting.

Eleanor asked Suzanne Onorato to present on the work underway at UConn to enhance student mental health services and to report on Keeling & Associates' Report and recommendations.

Suzanne Onorato reported Keeling & Associates was hired to (1) conduct a comprehensive, in-depth review of the programs, services, operations, and resources of Student Health and Wellness-Mental Health and (2) provide recommendations that build upon the Department's core assets and advance a strategic and forward-looking approach to mental health and well-being. They met with 85 constituents, 1/3 of those being students. Areas in the report that were highlighted were: Understanding our Vision; hiring leaders that can lead us through change and working with cultural performance; operations and access; become a clinical model of service; reducing wait times; equity and inclusion.

SHaW has been working for the last six to eight months on implementing several of the recommendations. Designing a clinic model of service; hired an Associate Director of Mental Health; currently interviewing for a Director of Mental Health; redesigned their website with student needs in mind (will go live in January); on line appointments for students; extended hours; hired a Director of Health Equity and Access to Care. Committee members commended the entire Team for all of their work.

Trustee Werstler appreciates the work being done with SHaW and Mental Health and feels that this information should be communicated to students.

Trustee Fang is hearing from graduate students that this has been a challenging semester being off campus and not being a part of a community.

Office of Diversity and Inclusion:

Frank Tuitt outlined the work of the Office of Diversity and Inclusion. They have implemented three working groups related to Campus Climate and are reviewing the scope of their work. Trustee Cantor welcomed Frank to UConn and asked that he attend a future meeting of the Student Life Committee.
