Improving quality of life for a sustainable future
Who We Are.

Service to the community

Teaching

Research

Extension
Who We Are.

Strategic Vision Focus Areas

- Sustainable agriculture & food supply
- Sustainable urban and rural landscapes
- Enhancing global health
- Climate change adaptation & resilience
- Dismantling structural racism
Who We Are.

2,500 students

$31.4M research funding

169 towns served
Who We Are.

38% of undergrads self-identify as non-white

Highest racial and ethnic diversity in the last decade
We Prepare.

CAHNR students are prepared for fulfilling, high paying careers in many sectors.

78 Experiential Courses

$821,000 Scholarships Provided

33% First Generation Students

Students from Every CT Town in Last 5 Years
We Grow.

Highest research expenditures on record

65% increase in research awards

Highest graduate enrollment in last 5 years
We Grow.
We Serve.

100,465 people reached

15,066 youth participants

142,000 volunteer hours

$3.8 million value of volunteer time
We Collaborate.

Connecticut Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory (CVMDL)

Urban Forestry Equity and Resilience Grant Program

UConn CAHNR SNAP-Ed Nutrition Program
We Collaborate.

CAHNR faculty serve on Governor’s Council on Climate Change (GC3)
We Innovate.

Vaccine platform

- Emerging and re-emerging disease threats
- Rapid development and deployment
- Zika, SARS-CoV-2, and other mosquito and tick-borne agents
We Innovate.

National leader in cannabis research, extension outreach, and workforce development
We Innovate.

Supporting health of mothers and children using social media
We Respond.

CAHNR steps in to support our communities when they call
We Respond.

160,000 lbs
dairy products delivered statewide by UConn Extension during the pandemic

☑ 96 food pantries served

☑ 10,710 families served statewide
Working with Tribal Nations on farming, nutrition, and accessible education
We Respond.

Allied Health Sciences program at UConn Waterbury
We Respond.

Addressing health disparities in communities statewide